MARRIED 50 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Hooker, Long at the Hooker House, Reach Golden Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Hooker of this city will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Monday at Winthrop Beach, Mass. Fifty years ago Monday Mr. Hooker married Miss Sarah S. Lounsbury in Woodbridge, Conn. For many years he was proprietor of the Hooker House in this city and at one time ran the Brainard House which stood on the corner of Church and Main streets. Some time ago Mr. Hooker retired from business and since that time he has made his home on Prospect street.

Keirans-Doyles.

In Waterbury Monday morning Miss Theresa W. Doyle and William H. Keirans, both of this city, were united in marriage in the Church of the Immaculate Conception of the Holy Mother. The bride was employed by the American Thread company and the groom was assistant manager of the Five and Ten Cent Store. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Luke Fitzsimmons. The bridesmaids were Miss Helen C. Doyle and E. A. O'Brien. After a wedding trip the couple will reside in Waterbury.

Automobile Broke Through Street Surface.

Two small boys came to the police station Friday morning and stated to Chief Kilhourey that there was a hole in the road near the High Street entrance to the town hall. Upon investigation it was discovered that the hole had been made by an automobile that had broken through the surface of the street which had been underground by water. Superintendent of Water Works Milton was called and had boys place over the hole temporarily.

Sailors Go Through City.

About 3.30 o'clock Friday afternoon several trainloads of sailors with their equipment passed through this city on their way to some unknown point. Where the men came from is as much of a mystery as their destination. The men looked fit for duty in their white uniforms and white hats.

Denied Giving Boys Liquor.

Edward Cox was before the police court Friday morning on the charge of intoxication to which he pleaded guilty. Some time ago the accused appeared before the court and was given an opportunity to get out of town but Friday a sentence of thirty days in jail was imposed by the court. At the time of his arrest there were two small boys with him and they were very much under the influence of liquor but Cox denied having given them the intoxicant.

Ten Recruits For Company L—Loss One Man.

Company L was strengthened by the addition of two new recruits Friday. They were Edward Donovan and Joseph Grimes, both of this city. They also lost one of their men in the discharge of Fred Popple, who received his discharge on account of injuries received some time ago. In some way Popple had his first finger severed at the joint.

At present both companies K and I are under the big canvas or regulation camping tents which hold a squad of men. The members of Company L hope that their canvas will arrive soon so that they may have more room to sleep in. About ten men are being housed in the large tents at present.

Soldiers Inoculated.

The members of Company K and I received their second injection of anti-typoid serum. The members of Company L will receive their dose tomorrow. As a result of the injections on Friday morning the members of Company L will be given various drills to the men and no two drills are held at the same time on succeeding days.

Each of the companies expect to have more recruits arrive in camp tomorrow. The recruits for some time have been waiting for a roll call of one hundred and fifty men. At present Company I has but 82 men but these will probably be added to before the company sees any real service.

A. O. H. Meeting at Dayville.

Many of the Hibernians of this city are planning on attending the county meeting in Dayville Sunday afternoon. Twomey, president of the Windham order, is sending out the invitations to the affair.

STAFFORD SPRINGS

Husband Who Beat Wife When Told to Quit Drinking Goes to Jail—Daughters of Pocahontas Plan Picnic

John Hoycock is serving a term of 30 days in jail for hitting his wife with the head with a chair. The man had been on a spree for several days and Thursday when his wife told him he ought to stop drinking and go to work he became angry and picked up a chair and beat his wife with it.

She came to the borough and complained to the prosecuting attorney for arrest of Hoycock. The family lives on Village Hill and when Deputy Sheriff Helm went after the man Friday he found him asleep in the barn while Mrs. Hoycock and children were at work in the field. The case was tried before Deputy Judge Taft, who thought that a fine would not be sufficient punishment for the assault, so sent the man to Rollins jail.

Repairs Nearly Completed.

Work Horse Backs Off Embankment Into Five Feet of Water—Animal Badly Cut When Rescued—Justin Smith Visiting in Town.

Thursday afternoon about 3 o'clock a horse hitched to a single dump cart backed off an embankment at the rear of the new addition to the Baltic mills. The cart had been loaded by workmen and the teamster had driven to a point where a portion of the yard is being filled in. When the horse reached the stopping place to unload, he kept backing and the cart overbalanced and horse and load went down the embankment into the water, which at this point is about five feet deep. The weight of the cart quickly drew the animal under water. A number of men working nearby went to the rescue and succeeded in releasing the animal from the load and brought the horse ashore. The animal was badly cut about the breast, knees, shoulders and flanks. The horse was taken to Thomas Burke's stable and a veterinarian from Norwich was called. The horse's wounds received proper attention.

Harry Becker Found Dead in Bed—Shaw Pageant in Bigelow Gardens—Dr. E. B. Cragin Impersonates Old-Time Doctor.

Harry Becker, 20, was found dead in bed Thursday morning. He had been subject to epileptic fits and probably had one during the night, rolled over on his face and was found in that position, having suffocated. Medical Examiner Dr. J. M. C. Kimball stated that the young man had been dead several hours. The funeral and burial was held Thursday afternoon.

Artemus F. Roper was the guest of friends in Norwich Thursday.

Shaw Pageant a Novel Sight. A shawl pageant was held at the home of the Misses Bigelow on South Main street Thursday afternoon. The parade was held in the gardens north of the house. It was one of the prettiest sights ever seen hereabouts. Nearly one hundred took part. The shawls were of every shade of color and hue. The costumes worn were of the olden days. Several of the young ladies wore Red Cross uniforms.

Dr. E. B. Cragin brought up in the rear of the nurses, wearing an old-fashioned wig, with a beard and mustache and carrying a sashel. The Academy Mandolin club furnished music. Ice cream and cake were on sale. Over $50 was cleared.
